Farmingville, NY - On Sunday, September 15, Councilwoman Jane Bonner will attend the Rocky Point Farmers and Artisans Market HarvestFest, presented by the Rocky Point Civic Association. The event, co-sponsored by the Town of Brookhaven Parks Department, will be held at the Town's Old Depot Park located at Broadway and Prince Road in Rocky Point from 8:00 am to 4:00 pm. Earlier this year, the Town Board voted unanimously to adopt Councilwoman Bonner's resolution that authorizes the Rocky Point Farmers and Artisans Market to operate at the Town's Old Depot Park as a co-sponsorship between the Rocky Point Civic Association and the Town. The market, which opened on June 23, is classified as a "program for public good" which qualifies it for coverage under the Town of Brookhaven Programs for Public Good insurance.

"The Farmers and Artisans Market has been such a great success this summer and it will be great to top it off with HarvestFest," said Councilwoman Bonner. "I look forward to seeing the community come out for the crafts, food, music and fun. This is a family event that I encourage everyone to attend."

HarvestFest will feature a variety of crafts for sale, locally made products, fruits and vegetables, and more. Many North Shore businesses will participate, including the Davis Peach Farm and Corwins Farm. There will be a pig roast by Naturally Grass Fed and entertainment by the Homegrown String Band performing traditional and original, high energy acoustic American roots music, and Shecky and the Twangtones.
